

THE ELECTRONIC JOURNALS LIBRARY (EZB):

The Electronic Journals Library (EZB) is a service of the University Library Regensburg that makes using electronic journals easy. Currently, the EZB comprises more than 55,000 e-journals. The University Library has licensed about 27,000 titles for its customers, and more than 30,000 additional journals are freely available on the internet. All articles contained in these journals can be read from every PC on campus.

ELECTRONIC RESERVE COLLECTIONS FOR COURSES

This electronic reserve collections for courses are a digital version of the traditional reserve collections. These offer digital books and academic articles that are of interest to current courses as searchable PDF files. The usage of these digital texts is restricted to the rooms of the University Library. For this purpose, you will find PCs in the Central Library, in every Reading Room, and the CIP Pools (computer clusters) of the University Library.
